

DO YOU NEED HELP WITH YOUR AWKWARD LIVING ROOM?

What to do with your long and narrow living room? Is this something you struggle with? I've written two blog posts which address different aspects of this problem here and here.

If you'd like a custom solution for your own living room, I am offering a special rate for a virtual design plan to help you with your specific needs for your space.

You will provide me with a measured floor plan (instructions will be provided), photos and information on the furniture you are keeping and your specific needs and challenges you are looking to address.

I will return to you measured floor plans, 3D renderings and actionable solutions. Easy and quick!
